The penalty for violating the ordinance is a fine of not less that $5 and not more than $25, and a revocation of the license. New Jersey Licenses in Massachusetts The Massachusetts Highway Commission has given the chiefs of police in Springfield, Pittsfield, Greenfield, Lowell. Xewburyport and North Attleboro authority to grant temporary licenses to New Jersey motorists, who are on their way across the Bay State, so that they may not have to go to Boston for such licenses. This was brought about because of the recent law preventing New Jersey motorists from operating without a license in Massachusetts, and it was deemed fair to give them a chance to take out a license at some available point. The cities named are so located that New Jersey motorists pass through them on the way from the south, west and north, and will...
