If anything were wanted to guarantee the the success of this organisation, it is the fact that we have His Royal Highness as our President. Under his auspices and guidance the work, which has been carried forward to such an extent already, will be rapidly advanced. . In a short time a number of gentlemen closely connected with this industry will be leaving for the Conference to be held in the Dominion of Canada. They are much to be envied in having the opportunity of visiting that country, and I am quite sure that they will take out the good wishes of all members of the Association in the work in which they...
