Hugo s Mother had lost her job yet, by September 1984, had bounced back. Her daughter, Gypsie, was onto boyfriend number three and the youngest children were showing no more signs of extraordinary abilities. The Grazer family seemed on the brink of normalcy. Hugo, on the other hand, was living in a medicated state. While everyone else was getting on with their lives, would he be left behind? Would he even be coherent enough to pass his Junior year of High School? His oldest brother, Zeke, had been through the worst of the juvenile criminal system but continued to struggle against social restraints. In Grazer Wire , he stumbles onto a connection to Hugo s witch problem. Is this Switch s emissary or just another link in a strange mystical chain? Find out in the third installment of the Hugo Grazer Chronicles.
