When a mining company promises jobs in exchange for the mountaintop where the church resides, a battle erupts between the sister-towns of Mourning and Haven, West Virginia. Skip-tracer Danita Ballinger races to Mourning before the lives of New Beginnings clients vanished to the off-the-grid town are jeopardized. Pastor Riley Coole refuses the mining company offers, and the help of the brazen woman forcing her way into his business and his towns. The murder of a key player in the tug-of-war over the mountain puts plans of retaliation into motion. Danita and Riley must put aside their private battle to protect the people relying on them for safety. Will seeing each other in a new light put them on a path of acceptance and true love, or create a further divide ripping apart the town and their own hearts This item ships from multiple locations.
