The Bible I Thought I Knew: Does the Bible Really Say That? (Paperback)

By Peter B Nagy, MR Peter B Nagy

Peter B. Nagy, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Is God any less God, or is the Bible any less God's Word .if Jesus did not carry the cross, if Mary Magdalene was not a prostitute, if Lucifer was never the devil's name, if Delilah did not cut Samson's hair, if every Israelite was not required to tithe, if angels do not have wings, if the crucifixion was not on a Friday, if YHWH is not three separate individual persons, if Abraham had six more children after Sarah died, if Sunday is not the new Sabbath, if Elijah did not ride a chariot of fire straight to heaven without dying, if the Bible does not even mention a seven year tribulation period, or if the Israelites had more to eat for forty years than just manna? As you well know, incomplete information can lead to faulty conclusions, allowing genuine and well-meaning people to perpetuate false teaching without even realizing it. With a close examination concerning the extremism that continues on certain church topics; our research identifies specific discrepancies, is designed to stimulate curiosity and challenge complacency, and...
