

Fifty Shades of Poetry (Paperback)

By Gina Ruddell

Austin Macauley Publishers, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. A collection of poems that, as the title suggests, have been most surely inspired by the blockbuster success novel, Fifty Shades of Grey. The poems in this book are written in the first person, and explore the sexual ideals, desires and dreams of someone very much in love and in lust with their lover. Proof that the phrase making love is an apt description of the way in which two people can enjoy each other and unite in sexual pleasure. This adult read has no need to employ crude language, it is written in a language that is intriguingly descriptive as it takes the reader along a wave of pleasurable excitement and includes them in the needs, desires and gratifications of the pair of lovers. An erotic anthology.
