MOOD AND WILL. jjiINTER came apace. When we look towards winter from the last borders of autumn, it seems as if we could not encounter it, and as if it never would go over. So does threatened trouble of any kind seem to us as we look forward upon its miry ways from the last borders of the pleasant greensward on which we have hitherto been walking. But not only do both run their course, but each has its own alleviations, its own pleasures; and very marvellously does the healthy mind- fit itself to the new circum N stances; while to those who will bravely take up their burden and bear it, asking no more questions than just, Is this my burden 1 a thousand ministrations of nature and life will come with gentle comfortings. Across a dark verdureless field will...
