

En LAir (in the Air): The Experiences of an American Foreign Legionnaire as a Pilot with the Lafayette Escadrille on the Western Front and I

By Bert Hall

Leonaur Ltd. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 152 pages. Dimensions: 8.6in. x 5.7in. x 0.9in. Legionnaire and Fighter Pilot American soldier of fortune Bert Hall enlisted in the French Foreign Legion-Deuxieme Regiment tranger-which was on its way to the front from Morocco, signing on for the duration of hostilities just two days after the Great War broke out in 1914. He served in the legion infantry, one of several welcome replacements from the United States of America who filled the gaps in the Legions ranks created by the 1, 800 German legionnaires who remained in North Africa so they would not oppose their fellow countrymen. The regiment was 4, 000 strong and most of its number were killed during the first 18 months of the conflict. Hall fought in the trenches until the end of the first year of the war and the transferred to the air service where he was trained as pilot. After a period of reconnaissance flying, his first taste of action came in 1915 during the allied offensive around Champagne. Hall was well known as one of the renowned cadre of American pilots who formed the core in the legendary Lafayette Escadrille-the fighter squadron with the Indian...
