Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Who Is the Strong Man of the War in America?: Wilson; Roosevelt; Bryan; Taft; Report of a Lecture Delivered Before the Independent Religious Society More than that, these men have power to do things. They say Mr. Bryan made Woodrow Wilson president. That would prove that he is a factor in the democratic party. Mr. Bryan has also a growing clientele in religious circles, and as the Spokesman of the prohibition party - the apostle of the Drys, whose political power is on the increase, Mr. Bryan may yet be elected to the presidency. Former President Taft is a quiet man, but he too has a considerable following, and he has never been busier than since our country entered the war. He speaks frequently to audiences of business men, to the soldier boys at the various camps, and to large popular gatherings in the great cities. And he is the organizer and president of the League to Enforce Peace after Victory. Surely, he should be reckoned among the big men who are today moulding and directing American opinion. The country is...
