Moby Media, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Many teens face difficult decisions, identity issues, heartbreak, and self-doubt along with the fun and excitement that comes with becoming an adult. An unexpected pregnancy amplifies and makes decisions and actions more urgent, more important and affects the lives of more people. This book, written by a former teen mom, discusses some of the issues faced by young women who decide, as she did, to keep and raise her child. Some of these issues are practical: money, babysitting, responsibility, staying in school, etc. Other issues are highly emotional: dealing with friends, understanding the struggle of the family (because most young women need the help of family), protecting a young child emotionally and physically, and figuring out how to have the future and life they want while raising a child. The author writes from a place of lessons hard-learned, of mistakes and understanding those mistakes, and of education. While she realizes that she was not always an amazing teen mom, her two bright and beautiful, educated and successful daughters thrived and succeeded in spite of the hardships of growing up with a young mom. This is a book of hope and of promise that a teen mom and her child can have a bright and happy future. It is for young moms, pregnant teens, teachers, relatives and friends teen mothers.
