By Karen Chapman

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .You must admit that the study of human psychology is a rather complicated process, although very fascinating and interesting. Today there is a huge number of the most diverse ways of obtaining psychological knowledge. To them, I include numerous Internet resources, seminars, webinars, hundreds of audio and video materials, courses, pieces of training, master classes, etc. However, perhaps, in my opinion, the most popular sources of information that many people use are books. In my book, will be considered the best, most effective and interesting methods of human analysis. Most of the methods that we will examine have been tested for many years and have been studied by thousands of people. Psychologists and ordinary people have successfully applied the information that contained in my book in practice. The book also contains methods that were developed quite recently, and this means that they are relevant to modern man. Therefore, I offer to your attention a useful book for any person who wants not only to study but also to effectively apply methods of analysis of personality both in the professional sphere and in...
