THE EVIL B.B. CHOW AND OTHER STORIES

Algonquin Books of Chapel Hill, 2005. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. 1st Edition. Product Description: The bestselling writer who took us on a cross-country journey to reveal his long love affair with chocolate in Candyfreak returns with his second accomplished short-story collection. Once again he has produced a funny, bracing, sometimes shocking, always imaginative collection of stories and characters: a young magazine editor enduring a bizarre blind date; a couple who are sure that they have been given implants by space aliens; a young boy desperate to please his father with his baseball prowess, who ends up fatally wounding another boy during a game; a creative-writing teacher struggling to resist his seductive student. With tremendous heart and an unmatched wit, Almond proves as he did with the acclaimed My Life in Heavy Metal and the bestselling Candyfreak to be one of the most original writers of our time. About the Author: Steve Almond is the author of the acclaimed story collection My Life in Heavy Metal. He has published stories and poems in publications ranging from Playboy to Tin House to Zoetrope, and they have been widely anthologized. He is a regular commentator on the NPR affiliate WBUR in Boston, teaches creative writing at Boston College, and has eaten at least one piece of candy every single day of his entire life.
