Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I have chosen the tile Pasaron Por Aqui after the Spanish paso por aqui inscription left by Juan de Onate at El Morro National Monument. He carved his message into the side of a cliff when he visited the area in 1605. El Morro, also known as Inscription Rock, is located near Zuni in western New Mexico. Literally translated into English, paso por aqui means he passed through these parts. Pasaron por aqui means they passed through these parts. I have included short vignettes about fifty people who contributed to the rich history and lore of Guadalupe county. Included in Pasaron Por Aqui are the four delegates elected from Guadalupe county to attend the Constitutional Convention of 1910. The delegates of the convention were able to draft a constitution for what was then the Territory of New Mexico. The constitution they drafted led to statehood for New Mexico in 1912. Two individuals who visited the area found themselves in the county through circumstances beyond their control. One of them was Charles Lindbergh, the first aviator to fly solo non-stop across the Atlantic. He was forced to land in Vaughn due to engine trouble. America s folk hero, newspaper columnist and movie actor Will Rogers, who was flying towards California, was forced to land in Vaughn because of severe weather conditions. Other vignettes include a famous outlaw, this one died of old age, and several other political leaders. A Roman Catholic nun who mentored the president of a South American country is included. Some of the vignettes are about early settlers in the area. A railroad magnate who helped build Santa Rosa, though he didn t settle here, is the subject...
