Abela Publishing, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is a reissue in book form of the first series of The Line to Legend Land leaflets, originally published by the G.W.R. in 1922. This small volume was an early form of Great Western s modern day Top 10 Things To Do and gave the rail traveller a list of English, West Country legends to look up and places to see. This edition has twelve tales from the West Country of Devon Cornwall plus two supplements, The Furry Day Song and the iconic Trelawny, also known as The Song of the Western Men. In older, simpler days, when reading was a rare accomplishment, our many times great-grandparents would gather round the blazing fire of kitchen or hall on the long, dark winter nights and pass away the hours before bedtime in conversation and story-telling. The old stories were told again and again and children learned them by heart in their earliest years and passed them on to their children and grandchildren in turn. In origin, most of these old legends date from the very dawn of our history, possibly even in a time before Stonehenge has been erected. They may have even been told around the camp-fires of that first British army that went out to face invading CAEsar, now almost two millennia ago and in the marshes of Southern England by the army of Alfred the Great before they finally defeated the Viking invaders. Later, much later, with the spread of education and the introduction of formal curricula, in which folklore seems to have no place, they began to die. Then, when many folk could read and books grew cheap there was no longer the need to call upon...
