Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Joint Doctrine Note JDN 1-13 Security Force Assistance 29 April 2013 Joint Doctrine Note (JDN) 1-13, Security Force Assistance (SFA), is a pre-doctrinal publication that presents generally agreed to fundamental guidance for joint forces conducting SFA. It is considered a part of the initiation stage of the joint doctrine development process. Once extant and validated best practices and procedures are common across the operating forces, appropriate principles and guidance are incorporated into existing joint doctrine hierarchy or, if required, a new joint publication (JP). Despite the importance of its national mission, SFA does not have a dedicated JP and existing joint doctrine makes only occasional references to it. To address this joint doctrinal gap, J-7 developed the following JDN for the joint force s consideration. Although this JDN has not been through the joint doctrine development system as described in Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Instruction 5120.02C, Joint Doctrine Development System, it draws on both contemporary and historical experiences to describe the documented best practices currently in use across the joint force. It also connects SFA to United...
