Excerpt from A Brief History of Corinna, Maine, From Its Purchase in 1804 to 1916 Dr. Warren was a brother of General Joseph Warren of Bunker Hill fame and himself served as surgeon and head of the Boston hospital during the war. His purchase was described as Township number four in the fourth range of townships north of the Waldo patent in the county of Somerset, District of Maine. Dr. Warren immediately showed his business sagacity by offering inducements to settlers such as would encourage them to make their homes within his boundaries and sent Samuel Lancey, Esq., to bush out a road near the center of the township east and west, giving him in exchange for his labor 170 acres of land, providing he should erect a house and barn thereon.
