Regan Arts, United States, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. When advertising legend Jim Riswold is stricken with leukemia and prostate cancer, he quits the business that made him famous to become a fake artist, creating a controversial body of work with a controversial cast of characters, from Hitler to Mao to Kim Jong-Il. It was a decision that would save his life. Advertising legend Jim Riswold is a Big F***** Deal. Ask him, he ll tell you. But when Riswold is stricken with leukemia and prostate cancer (a two-fer!), the freewheeling adman quits making commercials, and starts making art. But not just any art--Hitler art. Mussolini art. Stalin-in-a-bathtub art. This is not a sad cancer story. This is a molotov cocktail of raunch and heart and 18-gauge biopsy guns. This is a taboo-busting laugh riot, a raspberry blown straight at dying-guy preciousness and monsters of all kinds--cancer and world-historical bad guys included. Be warned--contents of this book include: One profanity-spiked TEDx talk. Several very public, full-frontal dick picks. Two adorable children. Something called Interferon Family Fun Night. Jim Riswold leading a crowd of people in a rousing rendition of Happy Birthday to his oncologist. Relentlessly funny, and scorchingly subversive, this is a bruised and bruising memoir--it is also tubed, scarred, stapled, and irradiated. But here s the secret: Jim Riswold, enfant terrible, the man Charles Barkley once called a role model for morons, is kind of a sweetheart. The wise-guy posturing is just a cover for his pulpy heart. Another secret: This book isn t about Hitler. It s about the beautiful, stupid, gross, foolish, and fantastic things we re willing to do for love and family and not-dying. It s about a guy who, with due respect to Lou Gehrig, considers himself the luckiest...
