But everything exposed by the light becomes visible, and everything that is illuminated becomes a light. This is why it is said: Wake up sleeper, Rise from the dead, And Christ will shine on you Ephesians 5:13-4 This Bible verse sprung to mind many times during our Mission trip to Uganda because of the many power cuts we experienced and that certainly was not the only thing we experienced. We all experienced many things which this book is partially about. This book is my travel diary of Uganda and I have tried to fit you (the reader) through the motions in the highs, the lows and the difficulties. We all had a life-changing experience in our ten days in Uganda which impacted us in a big way without a shadow of a doubt.
