BIBLE SOCIETY RECORD VOLUME 8-9

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 398 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.8in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1863 edition. Excerpt: . . . all nations require that they should not as a Society relax their efforts until the Holy Scriptures is within the reach of every household throughout the State. Society a large supply If you could possibly make a contribution, it would be thankfully received. Perhaps you could contribute part, and I could purchase I am appointed by the North Carolina Army Colportage Society to solicit of you a contribution, and also to purchase. I have no money. Cotton can be forwarded to City Point or the neighbourhood of Newborn, provided you could obtain permission from the Federal government to take it aboard the flag of truce boat for Fortress Monroe. If you cannot obtain such permission, the cotton could be deposited at any place in North Carolina, and be religiously held for the Society. The dearth of the Word of God in the South makes the hearts of Christians ache. Almost every copy of the New Testament that could be found in private houses, in the Sunday school libraries, and all that have been printed in the South, are but as a drop to the bucket. I would like to forward to North Carolina 75,000 Testaments and 25,000 Bibles-some pocket Bibles, and others, cheap ones of a larger size. I will mention ex-Governor Swain, ex-Governor Graham, Judge Battle, and Governor Vance, together with the Board of Army Colportage, as those who beg you to carry your Christian and magnanimous liberality...
