DANGEROUS HEART

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 292 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Philadelphia 1838 Penelope Kincaid believes she is a unremarkable, unlovable girl, especially when she sees herself in her fathers disapproving eyes and his constant comparison to her perfect little sister. All shes ever wanted is to be loved by her father the way he loves her sister. So when a friends brother agrees to marry Penny she believes all her problems are solved. Her father must approve since her new fianc is rich and of the right social standing. Finally, her father will see that she is worthy of his love. Cord Vandenberg believes he can never escape his own tortured past. Instead, he will save his best friend from a similar fate whom he believes is being married off to a social climbing gold-digger. Cord vows to stop Penelope Kincaid from ruining his friends life. In his attempts to break the two apart, he discovers that Pennys heart is true, and her kisses are sweeter than wine. She is the only person who can pull him from his darkness, but she is engaged to his best friend. He is tortured by both the thought of hurting his friend and losing Penny forever. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
