Future of this Colony--A Second Lesson on Geography completing the First--A Bad Adviser--Gone Astray--Lost!--One Pastime aa Good as Another-On the Right Road Again--Cedar Lake--Our Arrival at Rabbit Point. THE Pas Mission Settlement is one of the most populous in the North-West Territories. The inhabitants, almost all Indians and half-breeds, dwell on the banks of the river, in cottages built upon rocks, and are thus safe from the floods. The Hudson Bay Company s Fort, which is the landing place of the Steamboats, is situated at the mouth of the Carrot River, which waters a vast and fertile region, and it is my opinion that, in a very short time, the tide of emigration will flow towards those parts, where a Province will probably be formed with Pas Mission for its capital. Having landed, we followed the directions of Mr. Goodfellow, and went towards...
