The sycamore, tasseled gentle, shook its dangling balls, as if wishing to attract attention. While even the towering cathedral elm, relaxing from her gothic gloom, waved her arms in solemn grace abroad. The brilliant riote. scared from her pendant nest, soared away, flashing through the grove like a sudden sunbeam. A horn sings out upon the summer air, token of some rivercraft s approach, and a white-sail d graceful vessel glides around the point--the draw-bridge rises--it curtsies through as if deprecating the vexation of the impeded traveller. Alas, how altered is every thing, now that I gaze upon it after so many years have passed. The river bank, upon which waved those graceful trees, is now bristled with houses. Towering over each other, they ascend the hill, crowned with a range of lofty spires....
