Excerpt from Folk-Lore, 1917, Vol. 28: A Quarterly Review of Myth, Tradition, Institution, and Custom; Being the Transactions of the Folk-Lore Society and Incorporating the Archaeological Review and the Folk-Lore Journal Freire-marreco and others represented the Society at the meeting of the British Association in September. The twenty-seventh volume of fol/e-lore has been issued during the year. Owing to the increased cost of paper and labour, the Council have found it necessary to limit the Size of the volume and to dispense with illustrations as far as possible. Nevertheless, they believe that it will be found to maintain its usual high standard of excellence. A deep debt of gratitude is due to Mr. Crooke for the work he has bestowed upon it, notwithstanding his recent bereavements. The Council are glad to have his assurance that he will continue to act as Editor during the coming year. In the uncertain state of affairs due to the continuance of the war, the Council have been unable to come to any decision as to the issue of an additional volume for either of the years 1915 or 1916. They have recently had offered to them for publication a collection of folk-tales of Formosa made by Mr. S. Ishii, who has Spent fifteen years in the island since its acquisition by Japan. This Offer they have accepted provisionally. They have not yet decided for which year the folk-tales should be issued as an additional volume.
