Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Papers and Proceedings of the Fifth Annual Meeting of the Minnesota Academy of Social Sciences, 1912, Vol. 5 The people Of a commonwealth can advance toward better conditions of government and more efficient ad ministration only as public Opinion grows more en lightened. Such public opinion is formed largely through the medium of the press, the schools, and associations organized to discuss questions Of impor tance. With a view to providing a medium through which men may confer together upon important politi cal, social, economic, and historical questions affecting the life of the state, the Minnesota Academy of Social Sciences has been organized. It is believed that the in uence Of an organization whose members consist of persons interested in these questions would count much toward the formation of sound and rational doctrine relating to legislation and the social and industrial welfare Of the people of Minnesota. It is equally certain that the publication Of the papers presented at the annual meetings of the organization would stimulate thought upon these ques tions and that a journal would serve as a suitable means Of communication between those interested in the public questions coming up from time to time in the state.
