The Maine Historical Society published in 1847 a book of thirty-four pages, bearing the attractive title of A Voyage into New England, begun in 1623 and ended in 1624, Performed by Christopher Levett, His Majesty s Woodward of Somersetshire, and one of the Council of New England, printed at London by William fones and sold by Edward Brewster, at the sign of the Bible, in Paufs Churchyard, 1628. This reprint of a very rare book was of considerable interest to historical students, and their interest in the book naturally awakened an interest in its author; hence, the frequent enquiry, Who was Christopher Levett? The most that was known about him was that he was a Yorkshireman, and that when he wrote his book, he was living at Sherborne, in Dorsetshire. Certainly it was evident that he was a man of some importance, since he was the King s Woodward of Somersetshire, setshire, and a Councillor of New England, besides being a captain in the royal navy, and an author; but a year s search of the registers of Sherborne and neighboring parishes failed to reveal anything respecting him. In a visitation of the county, however, made in 1623, was found the name of his wife and several of his children, which was considered valuable information, since it gave some idea of Levett s social status. Of course the parishes in the city and neighborhood of York demanded attention; but a patient search of...
