Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What do you do when the man who was supposed to protect you is the one who caused you the most harm? That s the reality that Icess Kingston had been living since she was eight years old. The day her mother married her step father Kenyon was the day he turned her into daddy s good girl. In his eyes she was made for him and he made sure that she knew it. All innocence was lost but Icess was determined to gain it back even if that meant she had to betray him by jumping into the beds of other men. But the more she chased the control she was seeking the more out of control she became, that is until God stepped in. Genesis Sekibo a native of Kenya and the cousin to her best friend s boyfriend enters her life and instantly feels like she could be the one for him. The more time they spend together the more he realized just how broken she is and he can only think of one thing to do for her. Pray. Genesis knows she has demons that she is battling but has no idea just how strong they are. Will those revelations cause him to no longer be interested and question if he is really hearing God s voice? Or will he break through that barrier and show her whose daughter she truly is? When your spirit is being broken by someone that should protect you sometimes we find comfort in the things and people that we shouldn t. Some turn to drugs and alcohol while others turn to the wrong people and habits. Life can throw us...
