Outskirts Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My name is Jeffrey Trimm and I m the author of the book The Light in the Dark. It s a non-fiction true story which falls into the category of religious/paranormal. In November of 2009 I became a Christian by accepting Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. Almost immediately after I repented of my sins and turned my life over to God strange things began to happen to me and I was cast into the world of the unexplainable. During this experience of mine I had a supernatural encounter with the Lord Jesus Christ himself where he appointed me to endure a forty day test of faith where I had to confront the devil himself and get past him just to be saved. The terrifying ordeal that ensued thrust me into the realm of reincarnation, God, angels and demonic forces that I could neither see, nor understand, and it left he hanging in the dark questioning my own true identity and a horrible past that I was completely unaware of. A lot of people in this world often wonder what Jesus Christ really looks like and in my book I have written an accurate description of his appearance. I have also included a description of what the devil looks like as well. During my life I ve also heard many people wondering about what the devil really looks like. Well with my experience now everybody will know. My story is very dark and is somewhat frightening in many ways. Only towards the end does the light finally shine through with a happy ending. I feel like my book could help people in many ways by convincing the reader that the spirit...
