INTEGRATED EDUCATION

2012. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 231 Integrated Education is defined as the education that promotes learning and teaching in non-fragmented ways that embrace notions of holism, complexity and interconnection. Furthermore, it integrates the links, rather than the divisions, between academic disciplines and between various subjective and objective epistemologies and methods of inquiry. Other terms used are integrative learning, integrated curriculum, interdisciplinary teaching, transformational learning, thematic teaching, and synergistic teaching. The urgent need is to look at holistic, interconnected and non-fragmented...
