Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Perfect House; A Sermon: Preached Upon the Occasion of the Opening of the Memorial Church, Baltimore, MD Lord to Solomon, accepting the dedication of the Temple; and So the house of the Lord was perfected. Not perfected when the wealth of Jerusalem and the art of Tyre had lavished their treasures upon the building, not perfected when its garniture of precious metals and sparkling jewels and costly woods and embroidered hangings were complete, not perfected even when the tabernacle furniture was brought into it and the solemn dedication was made to Him for Whose honor it was reared and embellished. But it was perfected after that the prayers of the people had gone up and the favor of God been revealed in benignant responses. For this purpose was the Temple built, and not until this its true spiritual character and office had been declared, was the house of the Lord perfected. He who hath filled the caverns of the earth with riches and clothed the ground with verdure and planted the pathless forests and who is Lord of..
