University of Pittsburgh Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Equality and Revolution: Women's Rights in the Russian Empire, 1905-1917, Rochelle Goldberg Ruthchild, On July 20, 1917, Russia became the world's first major power to grant women the right to vote and hold public office. Ruthchild profiles the individual women (and a few men) who were vital to the feminist struggle, as well as the major conferences, publications, and organizations that promoted the cause. She documents political party debates on the acceptance of women's suffrage and rights, and follows each party's attempt to woo feminist constituencies despite their fear of women gaining too much political power. Ruthchild also compares and contrasts the Russian movement to those in Britain, China, Germany, France, and the United States. "Equality and Revolution" offers an original and revisionist study of the struggle for women's political rights in late imperial Russia, and presents...
