A year has passed since Kalli escaped from the Ferrasium, but the High Priests stranglehold is tightening and his tentacles are extending to encompass all of Keymett. As Pharaohs royal barges sail toward Wasset to celebrate the Jubilee Festival, the High Priest is poised like an arachnid in his nest, waiting to hatch his plans. Kalli must unlock the secrets of the Golden Scarab before all of Keymett falls under the High Priests dominion, but who can she trust Excerpt: Bells jangled above his head as Seraphis parted the beaded curtain at the shops entrance. Bottles, colors of every hue, lined the shelves from floor to ceiling of the small space. Dark shapes floated within some of the jars and Seraphis saw eyeballs, tails, and scales suspended within. Scents of aniseed, sulphur, and camphor mingled in his nostrils. He coughed. The shopkeeper, a man of middle years, bowed and the tassel on top of his box hat swung in an arc. He swept his arm toward his wares. Noble sir, how may I be of assistance The High Priest kept...
