

The Execution Channel: A Political Fable

By Michael McCord

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . With colorful characters so ludicrous they could only be real, McCord s satire of profit, politics, and capital punishment should be required reading. -- Clarion Review What will readers encounter when exploring the wicked and witty satirical universe of Michael McCord s The Execution Channel: A Political Fable? First, they will travel to the not-so-distant future and discover the emerging new country of Real America and the Galtian Imperatives, a faith-based economic religion which promises that extreme austerity and tax cut policies will ensure prosperity for all though the exact details of the magic remain elusive. Next, readers will see that John Galt, the fictional hero of Ayn Rand s Atlas Shrugged, has become the founding father icon of Real America and the Real American Party, the new political force sweeping the land. Local militias do their patriotic duty and lead the privatization craze throughout Real America while employing a creative protection racket plan to fit every business budget. Finally, readers will behold the majesty of The Execution Channel - a televintet network that promotes a focus-group...
