Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Proclamation of Freedom: A Sermon Preached in Dorchester, January 4, 1863 The acceptable year of the Lord. - Luke iv. 19. The New Year broke upon us in a fulness of natural splendor. The stormy darkness of the day preceding served to increase, by contrast, what was in itself so inspiringly beautiful; while the freshly-fallen snow, mantling all beneath in radiant purity, reflected, through an atmosphere of transparent clearness, the cloudless glories of the blue above. But there was a charm in that morning to millions of hearts, of which this of nature was but the expressive symbol, - a charm which it would have worn, though it had come swathed in darkness and cradled in storm. It was a morning which kindling anticipations had beckoned on its way; which had been prospectively hallowed and glorified for the blessed promise that it bore, as through a hundred days and nights it ripened to fulfilment. Friends, I offer no apology for making the event referred to the theme of my discourse to-day. Indeed, I could do no otherwise. It has to me a sacred importance, a holy significance. God is in it. His providence has wrought it out. Not by the will of man, but of God, has it come. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
