Excerpt from Elements of Hygiene and Sanitation: Being Part II of the Human Mechanism; Its Physiology and Hygiene and the Sanitation of Its Surroundings The authors hold with Matthew Arnold that conduct is three fourths of life, and that this is no less true of the physical than of the moral and the intellectual life. They therefore make no apology for fixing upon conduct as the keynote Of the present work, and the right conduct of the physical life as the principal aim and end Of all elementary teaching of hygiene and sanitation.
