Then come on up and be a part of Book Five, of the Salvation Game Series. Playing board, table or physical games are fun but when you are a Player in the game of life, you may not always get another turn to move in the right direction. In Come On Up and Play: The Salvation Game V, the Player believes that because she is certified, sanctified and sisterfied by her Pastor, she is in a higher state of holiness. She rests on her sin-less state to justify her rejection of the call of God. With the help of her husband and a suspicious supporter, she defends the righteousness and leadership of her Pastor. Will the evidence from the Holy Bible be enough to open her eyes to the wolf in disguise that shepherds her church?.
