Excerpt from First Biennial Report of the California School for the Blind: For the Twenty-Four Months Ending June 30, 1924 The Director of Advanced Studies is constantly being asked for expert advice by these college students, and he is frequently called upon to consult with their college faculties. I recommend that the Director of Advanced Studies be authorized to visit semi-annually our graduates attending various colleges. With reference to reader scholarships for blind college students who are ex-pupils of the California School for the Blind, I recommend that the coming legislature be asked to appropriate for the next biennium, and that additional be appropriated for reading and coaching for the high school students of the California School for the Blind, who are attending classes in public high schools.
