Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Come take this wild ride with the Lane girls. They are four cousins/sisters who have lived their lives not needing a man as a companion. That is until they all run into men who will not only make them feel things that never thought they could, but they will also be there for them when they need it most. Madison, Lisa, Alexus, and Marie will have their world rocked when they find out that things are not what they thought they were for so long. Taiwan came back to Virginia thinking that the situation he left in California would fix itself sooner or later. Only to find out that he has to handle it or give up on the future he wants. Saigon doesn't want to step on his twin brother's toes, so until Taiwan handles his situation, he has to watch her from a distance. Will the brothers be able to have a future with the women they desire, without the past coming back to haunt them? Rooke learns that a secret that has been kept from him and his brothers will soon come out. How will the brothers react to the truth that will change all of their lives?.
