The business success you want? The relationship you want? The life you want? Our choices shape what we get out of life, yet they are often hard to make. Sometimes we lack a good process for making them. Sometimes we need different skills or knowledge. Sometimes our lack of confidence in what we want - or even in ourselves - is what holds us back. The Power of CHOICE deals with all these issues. It gives you step-by-step guidance on what needs to be done to move you forward no matter what kind of change you want to make in your business or personal life. It tackles what is key in each step and gives helpful exercises to move you forward. It will help you to realign your thinking so you can continue to move ahead towards what you want no matter what challenges you face. Denise s background in strategic planning and organizational development helped her formulate the six-step CHOICE process. Her experience in executive coaching and personal development helped her identify the psychological games we often play with ourselves as we make choices, and more importantly, how we can avoid or overcome them. The combination is truly powerful.
