MISERYLAND (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Includes volumes 9-14 of the series Powdered Milk Ignatz award for Outstanding Series in 2016 Publisher s Weekly - Roberts shares her life as a mother living with a young child just learning to push boundaries in this collection of her Ignatz Award-nominated Powdered Milk minicomics. With this strong entry in the autobiographical comic genre, Roberts is unafraid to show herself looking bad, such as when she s frustrated when her daughter, Xia, calls her-only to find out it s to say I love you. In the comic s best pages, Roberts and Xia struggle with toilet training (That already happened, Xia beams when she is warned to keep her butt out of the bowl), and Xia abuses her swearing privileges. The linework on the characters is detailed while retaining a sketchiness for backgrounds that makes the figures feel raw, rather than polished. The simple, direct art makes for an intimate, personal journey through Roberts s life as a mother and creator. Alex Hoffman, Sequential State, 5 June, 2015 - Roberts comics primarily explore her relationship with her daughter Xia and husband Scott, as well as her interactions with friends and extended family. These are classic slice-of-life comics, and Roberts uses sometimes panels, sometimes full pages to capture the essence of certain moments. Xia is growing up and learning about the world around her, and the strange internal logic of toddlers gives Miseryland much of its charm. Slice-of-life comics can often be cute or endearing, but Miseryland is funny, laugh out loud funny, mostly due to the inanities and bad behaviors of its youngest cast member and Roberts deadpan reactions. Importantly, Roberts isn t writing a kids say the...
