Abm Publications, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After 15 years of trying to help her son battle drug and alcohol addiction Gayle, along with her husband Fino, has chosen to share the difficulties endured and the lessons learned in believing God for her son s healing. It is time to address the level of drug and alcohol addiction and subsequent incarceration prevalent in our society today and join to fight back against the terrible devastation that it brings to the lives of those caught in its snare. Families walk a tortuously thin line when a loved one is battling addiction. Gayle continually questioned her parenting skills: Did she forgive when she should have shown tough love? This book speaks of God s provision for those who are facing a similar situation with a loved one and feel they have exhausted all hope of recovery or reconciliation. It is a sign post to point the way out of the darkness and into the power, truth and light of God s redemptive love. As you read Never Let Go, may you be filled with wisdom and insight as you become equipped to fulfill God s victory for your lives.
