Their daughter, Elizabeth they have through scholarships been able to place in a Christian school where she meets a young man by the name of Dave Sterns who's parents are wealthy. They form a relationship, which leads to Dave's offer of marriage. But he has to overcome his mother's idea of a perfect mate and confront her with his plans to marry Elizabeth even if it means risking the possibility of being cut off from her money and inheritance. At the same time, both Mike and Jamie learn to overcome some of their prejudices about wealth and learn through the marriage of their daughter that money isn't necessarily always dirty and that the rich can be more than generous. They struggle to overcome long held beliefs and Jamie's constant embarrassment and need to be accepted. Ned, their youngest, a boy struggling to get through school decides to become a...
