RUN RAGGED

Coley Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Would anything change if women ruled the world? In a devastated country, those in charge rule by fear, inequality, and oppression. Rhia, a strong and independent sea captain, just wants to keep her head down and do her job, until she finds herself trapped in a re-education facility designed to help people fit into the rules of the New Way Forward. The warden claims to be guiding those in her care, but Rhia quickly sees the cracks in the system. As she is faced with torture and brainwashing, those cracks become gaping holes that threaten to pull her down into the depths of despair. Can Rhia resist the slow subversion of re-education and become the reluctant hero the new world needs? RUN Ragged is the thrilling second story by the award-winning author of Women s Work. Aguila s well crafted dystopian world serves as an upside-down mirror of today s political issues. Suspenseful, disturbing, yet hard to put down, RUN Ragged. points a spotlight at the pitfalls of our world today. -Maren Higbee, author of Lana Fray and the Grand Plan . A harrowing examination of the swinging pendulum of gender oppression. poses (questions) that invite contemplation long after the book is over.
