Judas Iscariot and the eleven disciples were closely associated with Jesus for more than three years. They preached Jesus teachings about the Kingdom of Heaven; healed and helped people and exorcised evil spirits. Judas had been carefully handpicked by Jesus to be one of his twelve disciples and appointed him as the group treasurer. That shows the faith reposed in Judas by the Master. What changed Judas mind? Was he disillusioned with Jesus? Why did he betray Jesus? Was 30 pieces of silver so enticing that he agreed to betray Jesus? Could it be something else? Was it Satan or was Judas obeying Jesus covert instructions to help him fulfill his destiny to die on the cross, thus paving the way for human salvation? If you ever wondered about- Who created this world? Why is it so imperfect? Who are we? What s our purpose in life? What s our ultimate destination? Did Jesus really die on the cross? Why did his resurrection take place on the third day? Read this book and find out.
