CRIMINAL CONVERSATIONS SCREENPLAY BY SI DUNN

Sagecreek Productions, LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. 104 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.2in. Psychiatrist Ted Smith has a problem. And it just keeps getting more complicated and crazy: He has met up again with his ex-wife, Alexandra, while his current wife, Georgina, is dying. Georgina insists Ted must have a plan for his life after she is gone. So she keeps encouraging him to quit hovering over her, get out of the house, take some classes and meet some new people. Meanwhile, Teds ex-wifes current husband is suing Alexandra for divorce and having her followed so he can prove adultery, keep their house and money, and not have to pay Alexandra a dime. At the same time, Alexandra is up for tenure at the university where she teaches drama, and she must avoid any kind of problem or scandal. But, in Teds efforts to get out of the house and meet people, he inadvertently has become one of Alexandras drama students. He did not recognize her new name when he enrolled. That is how they have met up again and now realize that something possibly could happen between them once again. But the timing definitely is wrong. Can they talk their way past a looming avalanche of trouble Or will love refuse to wait and make a total mess of everything This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
