Of Roses and Gerberas enchants and enlightens us with a story of a male celebrity actor (Trent Emanuel), who falls in love with a blind commoner (Beverly Abner), when he visits her flower shop for the first time. He orders a bouquet of 99 red roses for his celebrity female actor girlfriend (Irvette Ryland) as her Birthday present. After his first visit, he tends to go there more frequently and he finds Beverly being different from the other girlfriends of his, both the exes and current one. He buys more roses for his girlfriend and it turns out that it is a reason for him to meet Beverly. He personally thinks that all girls like roses, so he orders a bouquet from her to present to her as a gift. Little does she know that and when he gives her the roses that she has just arranged for him, she looks surprised and surprisingly, she rejects it by reasoning that she does not like roses. He finally does get to know why all of his past and present relationships do not last long as he turns out to be the one, who does not understand women s hearts and minds completely.
