Does Gemma dare wish upon a Latino superstar? Thirty-seven year old Gemma hadn t reckoned on being seated next to Latino heartthrob Emilio Caliente on the flight to Ibiza. She s bravely dismissed her cheating husband s generous divorce settlement, opting instead for a creatively satisfying, financially independent, bohemian lifestyle on a Spanish island in the sun. Falling in love with a pop music superstar eight years her junior was definitely not part of her plan. Common sense dictates staying away from Emilio Caliente and his cinnamon kisses: his life is in turmoil, his latest single has bombed, the press want to see him naked and his hellacious manager seems increasingly deranged. But surely the chain of extraordinary events that insists on bringing them together is proof that love is oblivious to common sense? Does Gemma dare follow her heart and wish upon a pop star without undermining everything else she set out to achieve? *** The idea for Mucho Caliente! formed while I was on holiday in Ibiza, visiting my best friend who lives there all year round. After a lazy day at a trendy beach, we sat sipping margaritas, admiring the sunset. A salsa band was playing at the beach bar, people were dancing. Among the dancers, I recognised a famous Latino pop star. My imagination took off and the result was Mucho Caliente! ~ Francesca ~.
