Emily Hargrave grew up in a most un-ladylike fashion, running wild on the prairie along with her brothers, sister and friends, learning how to scout and hunt with the grandson of Chief Running Bear. But while it might have been the type of upbringing to raise brows in town, Emily knowledge of tracking is now the only thing standing between life and death. Thirteen Indian women of the tribe have been taken, women who are like sisters to Emily. And she'll do whatever it takes to find the men who've kidnapped her friends. Anything Texas Ranger, Caleb McKenna is just passing through the territory. That is until he spots the most beautiful woman he's ever seen surrounded by a group of dangerous Cheyenne warriors. At least that's what it looks like. Especially since she starts running towards him, yelling. But things aren't exactly what they seem. However, one thing is for sure, Emily is in trouble. Suddenly caught up in a search for the stolen women, Caleb realizes someone wants Emily dead. Pretending to be engaged will buy him some time, but he has to figure out if the attempts on Emily's life and the kidnapped women are connected before it's too late. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
