Little, Brown. 1 Cloth(s), 2014. hard. Book Condition: New. The author of The Disappearing Spoon and The Violinist's Thumb here explores the secret inner workings of the brain, and how our understanding of it has been informed. Early neurological studies relied on misfortune to strike strokes, seizures, infectious diseases, horrendous accidents to see how victims coped. Amazing transformations occurred when different parts of the brain were destroyed: parents suddenly couldn't recognize their children, reliable citizens became pathological liars, and some people couldn't...
