His family, the life he knew, and his will to live were all swept away in a series of catastrophic storms. After the swarm of devastating twisters finally receded, no element of his life remained untouched. He is a man adrift until the night of the dark visitor, the chupacabra of legend. When do you allow yourself to believe the unbelievable? When do mythological creatures become part of the real world? Ray has to figure out if the chupacabra that has tracked him down and attempted to enlist him in an impossible undertaking is spinning wild lies or simply revealing frightening truths. Ray has only one place to turn: a mysterious woman cut off from the rest of humanity who may hold the answers. She may also be the key to rebuilding his shattered life. As Ray embraces the adventure of a lifetime, he'll discover that the world is larger than he ever dreamed, and forgotten planes of existence lurk at the end of every path. Hidden elemental powers command the shadowlands of Earth, and bizarre creatures of legend travel endless pathways in a multiverse of alternate worlds more terrifying and more beautiful than any he has ever known. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
