U.S.A.: Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, 1987. Hardcover. Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: As New. 1st Edition. 1987. Hardcover. Harcourt. First English Language Edition. First Printing. Translated from the Russian. A comic masterpiece by this great Russian satirist--a parody of Orwell's "1984". It begins in 1982 in the little German town of Stockdorf. Vitaly Kartsev, a Soviet writer in exile picks up the intriguing information that a Munich travel agency can book flights guaranteed to pass through a time warp. He gets booked on a flight that is to land in Moscow, sixty years later in 2042. This is a bawdy, ingenious and outrageous comedy that has been compared to Orwell and Jonathan Swift. "As penetrating and as timely as anything Huxley ever conceived." A SUPERB, UNREAD COPY. A very small bit of tanning on inside of the DJ flaps. New in As New Dust Jacket.
